Short Stories OF THE TOWN

Fire Call—No Damage.

Shortly after the noon hour today a call came to the fire department from the home of Mrs. J. G. Bell, 320 Colorado Ave. The spot in the flue caught fire, scattering a shower of sparks, but no damage was done.

Come to O. C. W. Commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brian and children, Jack, Glenn and Gladys, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Ricks of Crowell, Texas, arrived in Chickasha yesterday to attend the O. C. W. commencement exercises. They made the trip overland and are guests at the homes of J. R. and J. W. Owsley. A daughter from each family, Misses Jodee Brian and Christine Ricks, will be graduated.

BANQUET IS POSTPONED TO TUESDAY

The Men's Dinner Club banquet is unavoidably postponed from Thursday next as announced till next Tuesday evening, the 30th of May, at 8 p. m., at the Early hotel. Messrs. Birchfield and Remler, new owners of the Early, offer a banquet menu that promises to excel any heretofore provided for the club. The seating capacity will be 120 persons. As 59 were served in April it is expected that the entire 120 plates will be reserved early, so members are requested to reserve plates for themselves and any friends whom they may wish to entertain as guests, before Monday next. It is essential that members who order plates be present; send a substitute if absence is necessary, or pay part of the cost, as though present. This is the most essential feature of these banquets, and if the club is to continue without regular monthly dues, each member must co-operate in this respect. No requirement is made for attendance but after a plate is reserved by the committee it is expected that someone will appear to occupy the place or pay the price. This statement is made because last month seventeen reservations were made, which were not occupied, and only two of this seventeen sent the 85c, and if it had not been for extra visitors who came in at the last hour, the committee would have been burdened by having to pay for the folks who promised to come and did not, and who failed to pay. It is hoped that the plan as originally made can be carried out so that folks who want to attend pay for what they get, and no pay if not in attendance; this may be carried out if those attend or pay who order plates.

The banquet will be on the evening of Decoration Day, and proper decorations will be carried out, and proper music provided, if possible. Remember, a good time is promised, a real banquet, only 120 can be accommodated, and members come first, if they reserve first, starting on the minute of 8 p. m., to be through by 10 p. m.; no long, but pithy and witty, and even very logical and eloquent speeches, and lots of fun and jokes. If an earlier hour could have been arranged it would have been, but it is impossible this time. Hold your appetite till 8 p. m. and you will not regret the denial of usual early dinner. The Arrangement Committee, by D. H. Roche, Chairman.

NO WONDER ROSS MADE GOOD RACE

By United Press.

Lincoln, Neb., May 25.—Robert G. Ross, the Lexington, Neb., livery stable proprietor who received 9,417 votes in the Nebraska Democratic primary in his contest with President Wilson for the Democratic presidential nomination, and who also received 5,500 votes in his contest for the Republican presidential nomination, believes he is well fitted to serve the people of the United States as their president.

Because of Mr. Ross' rather large vote in both primaries, W. L. Gaston, of Wayne, wrote to him asking for a statement of his views, training and qualifications for the office of chief executive of the nation. Mr. Ross sent the following courteous reply:

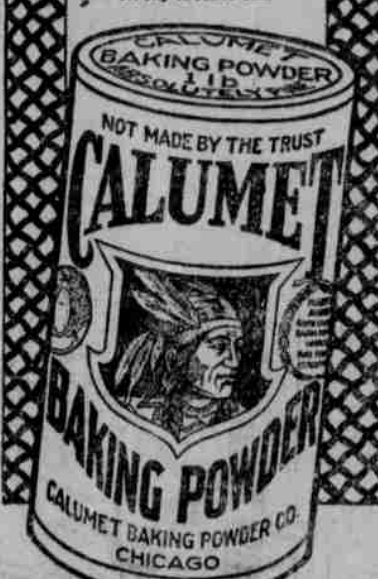

Lexington, Neb., April 24, 1916.
Mr. W. L. Gaston,
Dear sir: Your card received and will say that I was born in Ripley Ohio. My parents moved from there when I was 2 years old to Cattletts-

Must Have the Goods.

You can be just as nice to customers as you want to be. You can put them under obligations to you. You can advertise till you are teetotally broke, and you can talk till you're black in the face, but if you don't have the goods, people are going to go to the store of the man who does have them, and you can't blame them.—Frank Farrington.

Several Possible Meanings.

The Thinker—"I've got a letter from my son out West." His Friend—"What is Tom doing now?" The Thinker—"That's what I can't make out. He says he is engaged in the destruction of weeds. Now, that may mean he's smoking a good many cigars or that he is trying to induce some widow to make a second venture, or it may mean that he is doing farm work."

SUDDEN DEATH FROM APOPLEXY

A. L. Fatheree, retired farmer, passed away suddenly at his home, 1204

South Sixteenth street, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, death being attributed to apoplexy.

Mr. Fatheree was ill Saturday and Sunday but not dangerously. It was thought, and yesterday he was improved. This morning he arose and ate breakfast and later lay down on his bed to rest. Mrs. Fatheree left the room, going to the kitchen to clear up the dishes and when she returned in a few moments, her husband was dead, having succumbed apparently without a struggle. Life had evidently been extinct not more than a minute.

Mr. Fatheree was 69 years of age on May 17. He came to this country from Nocona, Texas, in 1901, and the next year he located in Chickasha. Up to the time he moved to Oklahoma he had been a farmer. Some years after coming here he went to Washita, Okla., where he was engaged in business for three years, later returning to Chickasha.

The deceased is survived by a widow, three sons and two daughters. The latter are Mrs. J. W. McCall, of Carnegie, and Mrs. R. C. Henry, of Washita. Two of the sons, A. A. and T. D. Fatheree live here and V. E. lives at Ardmore, N. M. Funeral arrangements will not be made till the latter is heard from. The body was taken to Claycomb & Anderson's undertaking parlors.

GROWTH OF SCHOOLS IS SHOWN

Oklahoma City, May 25.—(Special.)—An increase of more than 74 per cent in the enrollment and an increase of more than 327 per cent in the number of graduates for the year 1915-16 over the number for the year 1910-11 (five years) is shown by reports just received by State Supt. R. H. Wilson from the following ten educational institutions: The University, the College for Women, the six State Normal schools and the two Preparatory schools. This growth is far in excess of the growth of the population of Oklahoma during these years and Mr. Wilson says that this shows greater progress and advancement than has been made in any other field of endeavor or business enterprise in the state. The remarkable feature of this growth is that it exceeds the per cent of gain made in the number of pupils who have graduated from the eighth grade in the same time. In 1911, 3,725 pupils completed the eighth grade in the common schools, not including the cities of the first class or independent districts. This number was increased to 3,374 in 1915, or a gain of 122 per cent. The reports of the county superintendents, now being received by Supt. Wilson, indicate that this number will run over ten thousand this year or a gain of about 170 per cent in five years, compared with a gain of 327 per cent in the number who graduate from the ten state schools referred to above. Reports from the city superintendents indicate that the number who graduate from the high school this year shows an increase of like proportion.

The increase at the College for Women is from 138 to 411 students.

Children Need a Warm Table Drink

Many parents understand that tea and coffee hinder mental development and body growth in their children, but are puzzled how to gratify the little folk's desire for a warm drink, without harming them.

For years now, in a considerable number of American homes, the problem has been solved by

Instant Postum

This pure food-drink is made of prime wheat, roasted with a bit of pure, wholesome molasses. It closely resembles the higher grades of mild Java coffee in color and flavor, has a delightful aroma, and is so pleasing that the older folks join the children in this wholesome beverage.

Where the rest of the family stick to coffee, Instant Postum for the children causes no extra work. A level teaspoonful in a cup with hot water and cream and sugar to taste, makes a delightful drink instantly.

"There's a Reason" for Postum
